

Primary Care in Deprived Areas

Nuffield College, University of Oxford, New Road, Oxford OX1 1NF

22 – 23 March 2012

Programme

Day 1: 22 March 2012

Large Lecture Room, Nuffield College

Registration opens from 11.30

12.30 Lunch (The Buttery, Nuffield College)

13.45 Introduction and welcome

Dr Michael Dixon, Chairman, College of Medicine
Sir Graeme Catto, President, College of Medicine
Professor Barry McCormick, Director, CHSEO

14.00 Primary care policy in deprived areas

Professor David Colin-Thome, Independent Health Care Consultant, DCT Consulting Limited
(formerly National Director for Primary Care)

14.25 General Practitioners at the deep end

Professor Graham Watt, Norie Miller Professor of General Practice, Section of General Practice and Primary Care, University of Glasgow

14:50 Mental health care: thinking differently for deprived areas

Dr Chris Manning, Mental Health Policy Lead, College of Medicine

Session Chair: Professor Aidan Halligan, Director of Education, UCLH NHS Foundation Trust

15.15 Discussion

15:30 Break and refreshments

15.45 Getting commissioning right for deprived areas

Dr Judith Smith, Head of Policy, Nuffield Trust

Session Chair: Dr Douglas Russell, Medical Director, North London PCT Cluster

16:20 Comparative hospital use in deprived areas: implications for primary care

Professor Barry McCormick, Director, CHSEO and Peter-Sam Hill, Project Lead, CHSEO

Equality, quality and finance in primary care

Dr Tim Doran, Clinical Research Fellow, Public Health, National Primary Care Research and Development Centre, University of Manchester

Session Chair: Professor Steve Field, Chairman, NHS Future Forum

17:00 Discussion

17:10 Break and refreshments

Evening Session

18.30 The challenge of social exclusion in deprived areas

Professor Steve Field, Chairman, NHS Future Forum

19:00 Building care pathways for a socially excluded group: the homeless

Professor Aidan Halligan, Director of Education, UCLH NHS Foundation Trust

19.30 Serving deprived communities: a hospital perspective

Sir Graeme Catto, President, College of Medicine

20.00 Dinner (The Hall, Nuffield College)

Day 2: 23 March 2012

Large Lecture Room, Nuffield College

- 09.00 Health workforce in deprived areas
Professor Bonnie Sibbald, Primary Care Research Group, University of Manchester
Dr Douglas Russell, Medical Director, North London PCT Cluster
Session Chair: Professor Graham Watt, Norie Miller Professor of General Practice, Section of General Practice and Primary Care, University of Glasgow
Discussion
- 10.00 Stroke and CHD care in deprived areas
Dr Daniel Lasserson, Clinical Lecturer, Department of Primary Care, University of Oxford
Dr John Robson, Senior Clinical Lecturer, Centre for Primary Care and Public Health, Barts and The London School of Medicine & Dentistry
Session Chair: Professor Terry Young, Chair of Healthcare Systems, School of Information Systems, Computing and Mathematics, Brunel University
- 10:45 Break
- 11.00 The role of the NCB and the potential measures that the Board could take to promote improvements in quality of primary care in deprived areas
Mr Ben Dyson, Director of Policy, Commissioning and Primary Care, Department of Health
- 11:30 The resource model and the inducement to develop primary care
Professor Sir Brian Jarman, Senior Research Investigator, School of Public Health, Imperial College London
- 12:00 Economic aspects of the “Spearhead” initiative
Dr Richard Cookson, Reader, Centre for Health Economics, University of York
- 12.20 Discussion
Session Chair: Sir Graeme Catto, President, College of Medicine
- 12.45 Lunch (The Buttery, Nuffield College)
- 14:00 Taking health care into care homes
Dr Adam Darowski, Consultant Geriatrician, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust
- 14.15 The role of general practitioners in deprived areas: thinking holistically but concretely
Dr Michael Dixon, Chairman, College of Medicine
Laura Neilson, Hope Citadel Healthcare, Social Enterprise GP Provision Greater Manchester
Discussion
Session Chair: Professor Sir Brian Jarman, Senior Research Investigator, School of Public Health, Imperial College London
- 15:00 HELP – community involvement that makes a difference
Dr Brian Fisher, GP & Project Executive & Clinical Lead, PAERS Ltd
Connected communities for health and inclusion: possibilities and challenges for primary care
Professor David Morris, Professor of Mental Health, Inclusion and Community, Director of the Inclusion Institute, School of Health, University of Central Lancashire
Session Chair: Professor David Colin-Thome, Independent Health Care Consultant, DCT Consulting Limited (formerly National Director for Primary Care)
Discussion
- 15.45 Summary / closing remarks / discussion
Professor Steve Field, Chairman, NHS Future Forum
Sir Graeme Catto, President, College of Medicine
- 16.00 Close